Your All New CTR/BSA Multipurpose Compliance Manual is Ready!

If you have any previous version of this manual – it has become obsolete!

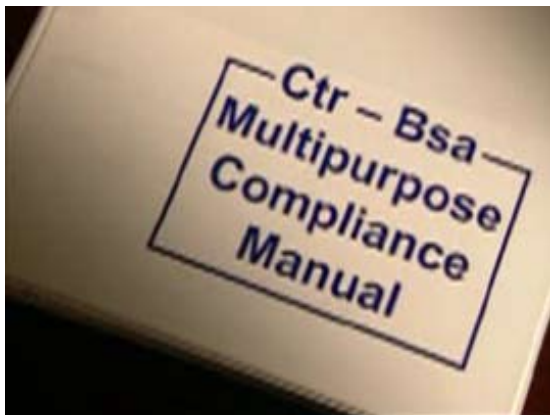

Completely revised in February 2011 to comply with FinCEN's reorganization of Title 31, Chapter X – the rules implementing the Bank Secrecy Act. FinCEN has designated September 30, 2011 as the date by which financial institutions must be in compliance with the new forms that support the Chapter X reorganization. Often referred to as "the encyclopedia of BSA compliance," the 2011 CTR/BSA Multipurpose Compliance Manual is the most authoritative compliance reference manual in the industry. This manual should be part of every depository institution's BSA/AML program. This unique manual, which includes more than 250 graphic examples and illustrations, is five manuals in one and is now also available in an optional companion bookmarked PDF electronic version on CD.

Use it as:

1. A supplement to your required written BSA compliance program (fill in a few blank spaces and/or add inserts in order to tailor this manual to your institution's specific policies and procedures.)
2. A BSA/compliance officer's reference manual to help analyze and find answers to regulatory questions.
3. A supplement or enhancement of your CTR policy and operations procedures.
4. A research and regulatory reference manual, including regulatory citations, to solve daily problems in conforming to the reporting and record-keeping requirements of the Bank Secrecy Act.
5. A training officer's guide for employee training on CTRs, exemptions, CIP and SARs.

This manual:

- Is fully cross-referenced; provides the old rule citation and the new rule citation in a side-by-side format available nowhere else.
- Walks you through completion of updated forms.
- Includes an index of all previous administrative rulings and those that have been restructured and renumbered – an archived cross-referenced paper trail to previous rulings.
- Provides a step-by-step analysis and explanation of the Bank Secrecy Act regulations pertaining to depository institutions.
- Quickly resolves BSA questions and CTR completion problems when they arise.
- Analyzes and explains all provisions of the general and specific CTR instructions and exempt person rule.
- Helps you complete and submit accurate CTRs.
- Provides guidance on SARS and SAR preparation.
- Analyzes CIP policy and procedures.
- Includes sample proficiency tests and answers.
